

What's the Use of It

B' Techniki Scholi Lemesou
«Gregoris Afxentiou», Cyprus

24 - 26 February 2015

 "What's the use of it?"  Partners Meeting  24/02/15 – 26/02/15  B' Techniki Scholi Lemesou "Gregoris Afxentiou", Cyprus

AGENDA

Tuesday: 24/02/2015

08:30	Transfer from the hotel to B' Techniki Scholi Lemesou
09:00 - 09:15	Meeting with the Director, Mr. Kyriacos Papavasiliou
09:15 - 09:30	Welcome message from the Director
09:30 - 10:00	Cyprus history and culture - Presentation by Giota Riga, English lecturer
10:00 - 10:30	Coffee brake
10:30 - 10:45	An opening of the meeting by Cristina Andrei
10:45 - 13:00	Project Presentations (Cyprus, Romania, Croatia and Spain)
13:00 - Evening	Old town tour on foot - Lunch

Wednesday: 25/02/2015

08:30	Transfer from the hotel to B' Techniki Scholi Lemesou
09:00 - 10:45	Project Presentations (continuation), visiting classrooms
10:45 - 11:00	Closing of the meeting
11:00	Trip to Omodos village, Troodos mountain and Yiaskouris winery. Lunch at Omodos

Thursday: 26/02/2015

09:00 – 15:00	Trip to Paphos – visiting archaeological places
19:00	Gala dinner at a traditional restaurant in Limassol

The second part of a two-year project "What's the Use of It" was held in Cyprus from 24 to 26 February 2015, where the group of teachers from Grammar School Metković, Croatia successfully presented the project tasks based on the application of mathematics in real life. The Croatian project leader Ljiljana Jeličić, the mathematician and two associates (Mirko Crnčević, the mathematician and Živka Franković, the English teacher) participated in the Cypriot meeting. Apart from them, there were also the teams from Spain and Romania.

B' Techniki Scholi Lemesou "Gregoris Afxentiou"

classroom/laboratory

International project members

Croatian participants

Since the idea is to exchange students and teachers during the first year of the project, the mobility of teachers will continue each time in a different country, so that they could agree upon the differences in school curricula among the countries included in the project. The goal is to prepare the principles of their work and evaluation. Then, in the second year the exchange of students would follow.

In addition to the working part of the project numerous extracurricular activities were organized such as attending the teaching lessons, students' laboratories and workshops for practice and the host school representatives did their best to make the guests get acquainted with their school management.

There were impressive contrasts between the top of the Troods mountains covered with snow and a several kilometers long beach promenade with the temperature of 23° C.

Troods mountains (1951 m) in the heart of Cyprus

Magnificent archeological site, Kourion (Curium)

Greco-Roman theatre in Kourion (2. c. BC)

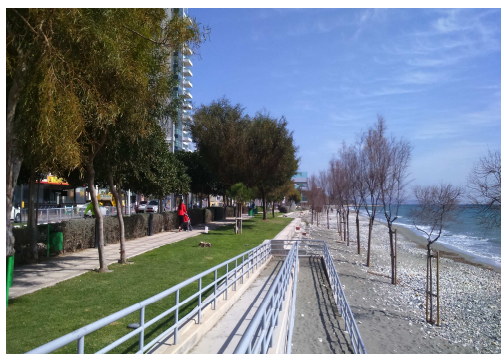

Breathtaking mosaics, (scenes from Greek Mythology)

The theatre

Our first stop in Cyprus was Larnaca (Larnaka), the seat of Christianity from its earliest years and the second home of Jesus' friend Lazarus. In winter months thousands of flamingoes make their annual stopover at the nearby salt lake.

Beach promenade, Larnaka

Salt Lake

The next stop was Nicosia (Lefkosia), the capital town with the Walled Old Town Center or a walk up to the barrier «The Green Line» that has been dividing Nicosia into two, since the Turkish invasion in 1974.

Graffiti, graffiti .....

Orthodox Church

Limassol (Lemesos), the second largest city is the island's main port and the centre of Cyprus wine industry. The city is also known for its lively Carnival celebrations. 39 km of Lemesos is the wine producing village of Omodos.

Omodos, with narrow cobbled streets.

On the way to Pafos (Paphos) there is the Rock of Aphrodite (Petra tou Romiou), the very spot where the Goddess of love and beauty was carried by white sea foam from Kythera in Greece.

The Rock of Aphrodite

Owing to the kindest and most hospitable friends, the Cypriot partners - the Croats, Romanians and Spaniards had a memorable opportunity to get to know the country's cultural heritage, which is the most important treasure of its people. Everybody is fully aware that Cyprus, as the easternmost part of Europe, constitutes a cultural bridge between people of different religions, cultures and ways of life.

Cypriot folk dancers and Romanian folk costumes

Venos and Giota

The next meeting will be held in Turkey on 11 May 2015.

The participants:

Cyprus

VENEDIKTOS HADJISAVVAS
COSTAS SCHINIS
ELENI LEONIDOU
PANAGIOTA RIGA
NIKI GIANNAKOU
PAVLOS SYMEOU

Romania

ANDREI CRISTINA ELENA
ANDREI GABRIEL
MERTICARU CRISTIAN OVIDIU
POPA MARIAN AUREL
RAFIROIU ANCA DOINA
BALABAN BIANCA

Croatia

LJILJANA JELIČIĆ
MIRKO CRNČEVIĆ
ŽIVKA FRANKOVIĆ

Spain

CATALINA AYALA MOLINA
JESÚS MONTOYA ARAGÓN
MIGUEL ÁNGEL GARCÍA LÓPEZ
SANTIAGO FERNANDO GONZÁLEZ BENÍTEZ